Guidance notes: brief description of service and consent

EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGISTS provide advice on children's development to practitioners, staff and parents/carers through direct casework, training and consultation

Who can request EP involvement?

- If a child/young person is attending a York school or setting (early years or Post-16), the involvement of the Educational Psychologist is negotiated with the Special Educational Needs Co-ordinator (SENCO), usually at the termly planning meeting. There must be parental permission or permission from the young person if over 16 yrs.

Criteria for requesting EP involvement:

- Where there are concerns about a child’s learning, development and/or participation in school.
- Where these concerns persist after staff have implemented a graduated response

PARENTAL CONSENT

I agree to the involvement of the City of York Educational Psychology Service. I understand that this may involve specialist staff working directly with my child, family and educational setting staff, with my knowledge.

I agree to the sharing of information about my child with other relevant professionals who are already involved, or who become involved with them during the time that the Educational Psychology Service is involved, in order for them to provide co-ordinated support and to improve multi-agency working.

I understand that as a result of this involvement my child’s name, date of birth and address, together with parents’/carers’ names, will be recorded by City of York Council, both paper and electronic records may be kept and that these records will be kept securely and destroyed safely, according to their document retention and deletion policy.

I understand that under the data protection law, I have the right to request a copy of the information the City of York Council holds about me/my child.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

Educational Psychology involvement is through prior consultation and agreement with the school/setting. A request is completed by the SENCO of the school/setting.

Once a signed request for service involvement has been received, basic details will be recorded by City of York Council.

Once accepted, a member of the Educational Psychology Team will be in contact with you and/or your child’s educational setting to arrange to meet you and your family if appropriate.

We look forward to working with you.

Please return this completed form by post or email to your named EP or our general inbox at: educational.psychology@york.gov.uk

If you prefer to return the consent form by post, please print the consent form out, complete and sign it, and send it to: The Educational Psychology Service, West Offices, Station Rise, YORK, YO1 6GA

Why do we collect information?

- The information you provide to the Educational Psychology Service enables us to support children and young people 0-25 years and their families to meet our legal responsibilities in accordance with the SEND Code of Practice (2015).
- We will ask for your written informed consent for non-statutory work such as consultation and assessment, prior to direct involvement with you or your child.
- For statutory work, the information you provide enables us to fulfil our legal duties, including:
 - statutory advice to the Local Authority as part of an education, health and care needs assessment
 - monitoring of provision and outcomes to contribute to the annual review process for children and young people who have an Education, Health and Care Plans (EHCPs)
 - contributing advice as an expert witness at first tier tribunals
- The information you give us ensures that we can offer an appropriate assessment of need and provide recommendations regarding special educational provision.

What information do we collect?

We collect and use the following information:

- Personal information (including name, date of birth and contact details)
- Characteristics (including gender, language and ethnicity)
- Details of any special educational needs for children
- Where appropriate, relevant medical information for children or parent /carers
- Where appropriate, relevant information regarding your/your child's status as a child/young person in care
- Attendance/exclusion data from the child/young person's educational setting
- Any additional personal information (including the name/contact details of the parent/carers) that is necessary for us to assess and provide you with the service you require
- Previous involvement with specialist services

Who is collecting the information?

- Information is collected by Educational Psychologists on behalf of the City of York Council (CYC) Educational Psychology Service and the Local Authority.

How is the information collected and stored?

Information about you/your child is collected through:

- completion of the 'Request for Educational Psychologist Involvement' form, either electronically or a paper copy. This form will also ask for your consent to the involvement of the Educational Psychology Service.

- meetings with you, and your child/young person
- consultation with other professionals
- professional/relevant service reports or CYC databases
- post, email and telephone conversations as appropriate

When we ask you for personal information, we will:

- ensure you know why we need it
- only ask for what is necessary for the work we are undertaking
- store it securely (electronically from 2017)
- ensure access is only given to authorised staff on a need to know basis
- retain it in accordance with the Practice Guidelines of the British Psychological Society (2017) - up to the age of 25 years for non-statutory files and 35 years from closure for statutory (EHC Plan) files.
- securely and confidentially delete/destroy this personal information when we no longer have a need to keep it.

We ask that you:

- give us accurate information
- inform us of any changes
- tell us as soon as possible if you notice mistakes in the information we hold about you/your child.

How do we use your personal information?

We will use your information to:

- Ensure that services and practitioners understand how they can best help you/your child
- Support our work with your child in his/her school or setting, or in your home or another setting for those children who are unable to attend school because of ill health.
- Take photographs of work produced by your child for record keeping and assessment arrangements. Photographs will not be used for any other purpose without asking for your additional explicit and informed consent first
- Provide the child or young people with appropriate services
- 'Sign post' the family to support appropriate
- Measure whether our services are improving life for children, young people and families
- Help us develop and improve our services
- Help inform which services and interventions require commissioning across the City of York to support families and communities
- Create statistics that are anonymous and cannot be linked back to you or your family for the purposes of local and national surveys
- Administer and protect public funds.

Who do we share data with?

We may share information about you/your child with other relevant professionals who are already involved, or who become involved, during the time that they are known to the Educational Psychology Service to provide co-ordinated support and to improve multi-agency working.

Below is a list of parties with whom we regularly share information:

- Educational settings
- CYC SEND Specialist Services
- Professionals from Health, Social Care and Early Help teams

We will not share your personal information with any other organisation or 3rd party other than those set out in this privacy notice without your consent, unless required to do so by data protection law, in delivering our statutory functions (Children and Families Act 2014), or such actions are necessary for safeguarding children and young people.

We may use the information to create statistics that are anonymous and cannot be linked back to your family or individuals. We could use these statistics to see how the Educational Psychology Service, the wider Council and its partners are supporting families and individuals, to help design better services and to contribute to national surveys and government returns e.g. to the Department for Education (DfE).

Your rights

You can find out about your rights under data protection law, on the Information Commissioners Office \(ICO\) website. You can also find out more about how the City of York Council uses personal information and your rights at <https://www.york.gov.uk/privacy>

You have the right to ask us if we hold personal information, what it is used for and to view the information we hold. You also have the right to know whether we disclose your personal information to other people and to ask us to correct anything that is wrong.

You have the right to see your personal information with some specific exceptions. For example, you will not be allowed to see personal information that contains details about someone else, even a member of your own family, until that person has given permission. There may be occasions when it would not be in your best interests to see it. If that is the case we will ensure that you are given a full explanation at the time so that you understand why this decision was made.

You can ask the council to stop processing your personal information in relation to any council service. This may delay or prevent us delivering a service to you. We will seek to comply with your request but may be required to hold or process information to comply with our legal duties.

If you want to exercise any of your rights or if you have a complaint about how we are using your information, please contact the council's Data Protection Officer, by email to foi@york.gov.uk or phone 01904 554145 or write to
