Single Occupancy Discount

In order to be eligible for this discount you need to be the only adult who lives in the property. This discount will only apply at properties which are your sole or main residence.

- An adult is a person who is aged 18 years old or more.
- A sole or main residence is the place a person considers to be their home and where they keep the majority of their possessions. In the case of married couples, the 'marital home' would ordinarily be considered to be the sole or main residence (even if one of the partners lives or works elsewhere).

If you are in any doubt about your eligibility please contact the council tax section (telephone 01904 551558) for advice.
