Dear Mr Berkeley and Mr Griffiths,

Examination of the City of York Local Plan – Next Steps

We are writing to follow up our letter dated 18 October in which we submitted a number of documents for your consideration in advance of planned consultation in February and March of 2023.

As we noted in the letter, we are intending to update the Council's Executive committee on 26th January 2023. In order to achieve this date, we would like to agree the final schedules of modifications and other documents for consultation by mid-December if possible, to meet the committee reporting deadlines.

We would appreciate understanding if you have early views or comments you are able to share with us now in order for us to address concerns and finalise the consultation documents with you. Clearly if there are any other actions, we can undertake to assist please do not hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely

Neil Ferris
